

Private International Law

Modulname
Private International Law
Studiengang	Abschluss
Wirtschaft und Recht	Master of Laws
Modulverantwortliche
Baetge, Dietmar
Stand vom	Sprache
2024-01-16	Englisch
Art der Lehrveranstaltung	CP nach ECTS
Spezialisierung	6
Art des Studiums	Semester	SWS	V / Ü / L / P / S
Vollzeit	2	4	2 / 2 / 0 / 0 / 0
Art des Studiums	Semester	SWS	V / Ü / L / P / S
Teilzeit	2	4	2 / 2 / 0 / 0 / 0

Empfohlene Voraussetzungen
Basic understanding of (German or any other national) commercial and private substantive law; English language skills.
Besondere Regelungen

Aufschlüsselung des Workload
Präsenz	Selbststudium	Projektarbeit	Prüfung	Summe
60,0 Std.	70,0 Std.	20,0 Std.	3,0 Std.	153 Std.

Private International Law

Lernziele

Kenntnis/Wissen

- Students get familiarized with a variety of international, European and national legal sources.
- They learn to deal with conflicting interests in cross-border settings.
- Participants get to know the differences between state and non-state law.

Fertigkeiten

- Students learn to take into account varying national and international legal and cultural perspectives.
- They are competent to understand, apply and critically assess national, European and international rules and concepts.
- Participants are able to enhance their language as well as their presentation skills.

Soziale Kompetenz

- Students improve their capacity for judgment in complex legal and business settings.
- They learn to express themselves correctly.
- They develop their intercultural competence.

Selbständigkeit

- Students enhance their ability for analytical, critical and creative thinking.
- Comprehensive project work enables participants to improve their capabilities for planning and controlling learning processes independently.

Inhalt

1. Elements and General Characteristics of PIL; Methods, Theories, and Approaches; Codification by the European Union
2. Jurisdiction of Courts (jurisdiction to adjudicate)
 - 2.1 Brussels Ibis Regulation (chapter 2)
 - 2.2 Bases for Jurisdiction
 - 2.3 Hague Convention of 2005 on Choice of Court Agreements
3. Choice of Law
 - 3.1 Contracts (Rome I Regulation)
 - 3.2 Torts (Rome II Regulation)
 - 3.3 Mandatory Rules and Extraterritorial Application of Economic Regulations
4. Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Judgments; Brussels Ibis Regulation (chapter 3)
5. Some Alternatives to PIL; Non-State Law; International and National Standard-Setting by Private Organizations (CEN, ISO, DIN)

Private International Law

Pflichtliteratur

- (2012). The Max Planck encyclopedia of European private law; vol. 1 and 2 (1. ed.). Oxford [u.a.]: Oxford Univ. Press.
- (2020). Rome Regulations, Commentary, Gralf-Peter Calliess & Moritz Renner (eds.) (3. ed.): Wolters Kluwer

Literaturempfehlungen